TO: Walpole Historical Society, Walpole, MA

I am happy to donate the accompanying Norwood-Walpole Resident and Business Directory published by the Boston Suburban Book Company in 1906.
The directory was given to me by my mother and belonged to my uncle, Leroy (Lee) ~~Caver~~ CARVER who used the directory while delivering dairy items in the towns of Norwood and Walpole. He was employed by Bateman's Dairy of Norwood and later the Norwood Dairy.
After more than 40 years in the dairy business Lee Caver retired in the 1953 due in part to injuries he received in an earlier accident occurring in Walpole near Kendall and East Streets. His truck went over an embankment during a snow storm ending up on the railroad tracks. (A youngster at the time I recall this event well, we lived near by and every one rushed to the scene of the accident, I believe the year was 1946 or 47.)
~~Lee Caver~~ CARVER was a long time resident of Norwood, living with his wife Florence (Aunt Florence) on Elliot Street until his death in 1968.
I have also included with the directory a photograph of "Uncle Lee" in his milk truck, believed to be taken in East Walpole during the 1920's. I do ask that the photo be preserved with the directory as my uncle was one of the very many decent, hard working people whom are seldom mentioned in the pages of history (he was my favorite uncle).
The almost century old directory is certainly showing its age after many years of use and its travels thru out Norwood and Walpole. But that aside it is for the most part complete and has proven to be valuable in locating information on a number of our family members who were living and working in Walpole and Norwood during the time period, this included Lee Caver who is listed in the Norwood directory as a "milk driver".
I hope the directory will be help full to you in your endeavors to record and preserve the history of Walpole, MA.

Sincerely

George F. Harrison

Preface.

We herewith present to our readers another volume of the Norwood and Walpole Directory confident it will be received as favorably as its predecessors.

Our thanks are given to all who have aided us while collecting matter for publication and courteously treated our canvassers.

Our appreciation is hereby expressed to our advertisers who represent the leading and enterprising merchants in these towns.

We trust our lists of residents will be found fairly accurate as the population is constantly changing and many of the employees of the shops and mills will be found here today and gone to another town tomorrow.

Expecting to issue the book again in two or three years.

We remain respectfully,

BOSTON SUBURBAN BOOK CO.,

Edward A. Jones, Treas.
